FOREWORD

[illegible] pursuant to Section 613 of P.L. 87-195 dated September 4, 1961 (22 USC 2363(b)) which grants the Secretary of the Treasury "sole authority to establish for all foreign currencies or credits the exchange rates at which such currencies are to be reported by all agencies of the Government."

The primary purpose of this report is to insure that foreign currency reports prepared by agencies shall be consistent with regularly published Treasury foreign currency reports as to amounts stated in foreign currency units and U.S. dollar equivalents. This includes all foreign currencies in which the U.S. Government has an interest, including receipts and disbursements, accrued revenues and expenditures, authorizations, obligations, receivables and payables, refunds, and [illegible] transactions.

Exceptions to using the reporting rates shown in this report are collections and [illegible] to be valued at specified rates set by international agreement, conversions of one foreign currency into another, foreign currencies sold for dollars and other types of transactions affecting dollar appropriations. See Treasury Circular No. 930, Section 4a (3) of [illegible] No. 1 for further details.

This quarterly report reflects exchange rates at which foreign currencies can be acquired by the U.S. Government for official expenditures as reported by disbursing officers for each post on the last business day of the month prior to the date of the published report. Example: [illegible] as of December 31 will reflect exchange rates [illegible] disbursing officers as of November 30. If [illegible] rates in this report by 10 percent or more, amendments to this quarterly report will be issued by Treasury. Amendments will also be issued to reflect the establishment of new foreign currencies.

To [illegible] exchange rates, [illegible] all U.S. Government agencies, [illegible] to convert foreign currency balances and [illegible] to U.S. dollar equivalents as of the date of this report and for the [illegible] three months. Since the [illegible] in this report [illegible] of exchange, they [illegible]
